Bernard Gabbott

Bernard is married to Anita, and they have four children – Seth, Baxter, Elsa and Sage. They moved to Narrabri at the start of 2019, having been in Wee Waa for the previous nine years. Bernard is the Vicar at Narrabri. Before working as a Vicar, Bernard had a few different 'occupations', ranging from university student, farmhand and rouseabout, through to assistant policy analyst and speech-writer. God was very gracious to have Bernard raised in home where he met Jesus through his parents. Bernard and Anita and the kids are passionate as a family about serving God and his mob in rural NSW, building the mob up so that people meet Jesus. As a family, they love being outside. As a bloke, Bernard relaxes by eating and reading, which means he also 'needs' running and enjoys pretty much any sport.

Graham Truscott

Born and raised in a Gippsland dairy farming family, Graham completed a Bachelor of Science (Forestry) in Canberra and a Graduate Diploma in Computing. A 14 year career in information and communications technology with Federal and Queensland State governments culminated in the Senior Executive Service. In 1994 he returned to agriculture, moving to Armidale as CEO of Angus Australia for 13 years. A three year stint as Deputy CEO of the CRC for Sheep Industry Innovation followed. Graham's final professional role as CEO of the Australian Wagyu Association saw Graham retire in June 2017. He was then engaged as a business consultant to the Wagyu Society of South Africa for the following year, where he spoke broadly throughout South Africa, Namibia and Zimbabwe. Graham has been an active member of churches in Foster, Victoria; Canberra and Brisbane. He is currently the Treasurer and a service and Kidz Club leader at St Marks uneChurch in Armidale. Also he serves as President of Armidale Youth Futures, funding an SRE teacher into the Armidale Secondary College. Graham has been married to Evie for 37 anniversaries, most of which he has remembered. They have four wonderful children and five delightful grandchildren
